School House Rock written by George Keating, Kyle Hall, & Scott Ferguson

Music and Lyrics by Lynn Ahrens, Bob Dorough, Dave Frishberg, Kathy Mandry, George Newall & Tom Yohe

A pop culture phenomenon comes to the musical stage! The Emmy Award-winning 1970's Saturday morning cartoon series that taught history, grammar, math, science and politics through clever, tuneful songs is not only making a small-screen comeback, instructing a whole new generation to "Unpack Your Adjectives" and "Do The Circulations," it's lighting up stages everywhere.

Sex Please, We're Sixty An American Farce by Michael and Susan Parker

This hysterical farce is the Golden Girls meets Grumpy Old Men at a Bed and Breakfast in New England is a comic drama filled with mayhem, mischief and mood swings. The witty American farce takes a look at what happens when there is a mix-up of libido-boosting pharmaceuticals. With a clever storyline the production is sure to entertain, enlighten and revise anyone's thinking about the sexual prowess of the sixtysomethings among us.

Bleacher Bums – Cross Town Classic by Joe Mantegna

In the bleachers at Chicago's Wrigley Field, die hard Cub fans root for their team. The group includes a rabid cheerleader, a blind man who follows the game by transistor radio and does his own play by play, a bathing beauty, a nerd and various other bleacher denizens. The Cubs inevitably blow it in the ninth and the villainous Marvin, who always bets against the Cubs figuring he can't lose, cleans up. The bleacher bums remain undaunted; they will be back tomorrow, to root for the home team.
